ASURA BOOK SALES FUND RAISER

Are your bookshelves too full? Are you downsizing your office or your home and don't have space for all of your books? Donate your used books to us, and we will work with our partner, the Friends of the Phoenix Public Library, to sell them. We'll use proceeds of the sale to support our programs. The ASU Foundation, a separate nonprofit organization that exists to support ASU, will provide you with a gift receipt for tax purposes.

Half of the proceeds will be used for our ASURA scholarship that goes to an ASU student and half will be used for our Video History project. The Video History project captures interviews with retired and former employees of ASU who have a significant history with the university. If you want more information about these projects, please see our website, http://asura.asu.edu.

If you have books to donate, please provide us with information listed on the form below. You can send the information via e-mail to Mary Stevens, marystevens0@gmail.com, or you can write the answers on the form below and mail it to us at our office, whose address is shown in the above letterhead. We will contact you to make arrangements to transfer the books.

BOXES: If you need boxes, ASURA has them available at our office in the Community Services Building, Room 201, 200 East Curry Road, Tempe, AZ. When boxing your books, please do not overfill the boxes: leave sufficient room to cover or close each box.
