

Eleventh Annual Emeritus College Symposium

In What Universe Are Your Grandchildren Living?

...and what will it be like there when they are as old as you?

Saturday, November 5, 2016
8:30 AM – 3:00 PM
Old Main, Arizona State University, Tempe Campus

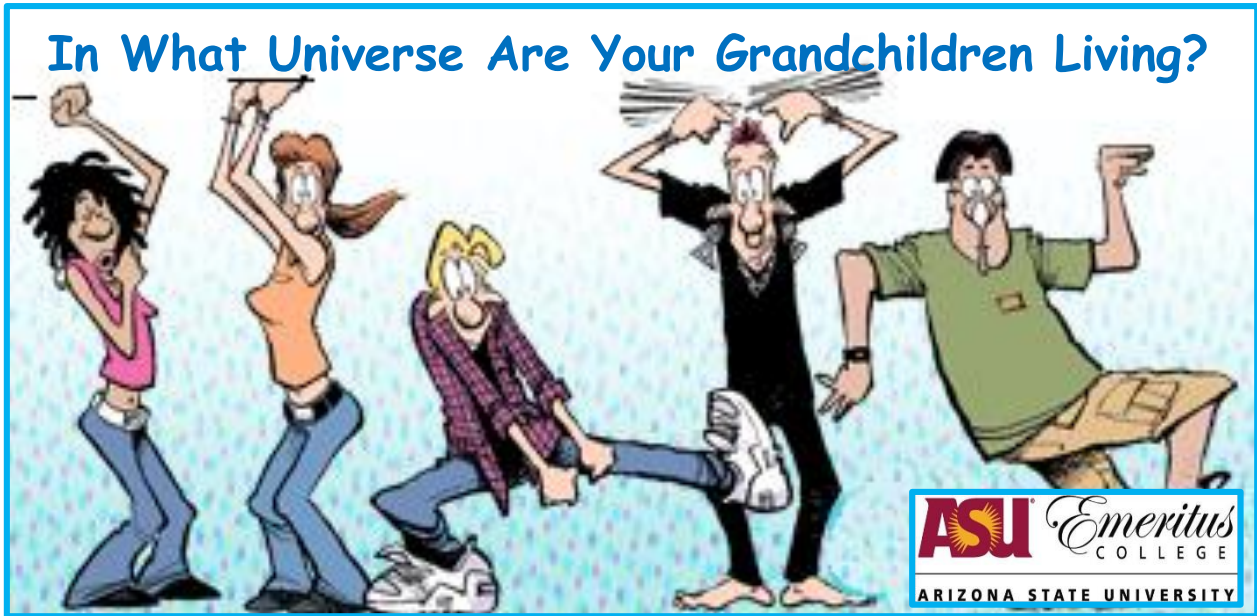

Please join us at the Eleventh Annual Emeritus College Symposium. A full program of papers and presentations by Emeritus College members will be highlighted by plenary speakers Professor Denise Bodman (“Generation Who? Connecting with Our Youth”) of the T. Denny Sanford School of Social and Family Dynamics and Cynthia Selin (“Exploring Uncertain Futures”) of the Julie Ann Wrigley Global Institute of Sustainability.

A full program will be made available on-line one week before the Symposium. Among member presentations are “Star Wars as a Comedy of Humors”, “E. T. – Where Art Thou?”, “Taboos Revisited”, “Envisioning the Future”, “Millenials and the Speed of Science”, “Education, Employment and Earning Patterns: Past, Present and Future”, “Crimea’s Crisis”, “The Loveliness of Air” and many others.

A book, CD and DVD exchange will be conducted. Drop and drag!

The Keynote Session at 8:30 will be preceded by a continental breakfast. Parallel sessions will run from 9:40 – 10:55, 11:10 – 12:25 and 2:10 – 3:00, separated by a coffee break at 10:55 and a banquet luncheon at 12:30.

Members of the Emeritus College and their guests, as well as members of the ASU Retirees Association, are invited at the member registration fee of $40. Members of the public are invited at a registration fee of $50. A registration form accompanies this announcement.
